 or creating an interest in the thing being considered and buy or purchase will be interpreted correspondingly;
- where a person is entitled to vote or hold the right to vote on any matter by virtue of this Constitution, the person may vote by proxy or attorney or representative (if a body corporate);
- m) headings and the table of contents are for convenience only and will be disregarded in the interpretation of this Constitution;
- if a word or phrase is given a defined meaning, another grammatical form of that word or phrase has a corresponding meaning; and
- each paragraph or sub-paragraph in a list is to be read independently from the others in the list.

1.3 Actions authorised under the Law

Subject to Rule 3, where the Law authorises or permits a company to do any thing if authorised by its Constitution, the Company is authorised or permitted to do that thing despite any other provision of this Constitution.

1.4 Corporations Act prevails

Where any provision in this Constitution is invalid or unenforceable or conflicts with any provision of the Law, it will be read and interpreted as being subject to the provisions of the Law and will be ineffective, but only to the extent of any invalidity, unenforceability or conflict.

1.5 No limit on exercise of powers

Subject to Rule 3, where the Company or the directors or any other person is given a power, right or discretion under this Constitution:

- a) the power, right or discretion may be exercised absolutely without restriction unless the power, right or discretion is expressly limited; and
- any exercise of that power, right or discretion on any occasion will not restrict the further exercise of the power, right or discretion on any other occasion or at any time.

2. EFFECT OF THE CONSTITUTION

This Constitution will have effect as a contract:

- a) between the Company and each Member;
- b) between the Company and each director and Secretary; and

c) between a Member and each other Member;

under which each Member agrees to observe and perform the Rules so far as they apply to that Member.

OBJECTS

The objects of the Company are to:

- a) support projects that benefit the town of Eumundi and its surrounding areas, including but not limited to projects that enhance:
 - i) community spirit and enjoyment;
 - ii) community amenities;
 - iii) community wellbeing and sustainability;
 - iv) charitable purposes;
 - v) cultural purposes;
 - vi) historical purposes; and
 - vii) benevolent purposes.
- b) promote and encourage tourism and business opportunities that enhance the town of Eumundi and its surrounding areas;
- acquire and operate community activities including but not limited to a community market car park for the general benefit of the town of Eumundi and its surrounding areas and to assist the Company in achieving its objects generally;

and to do all acts and things as may be deemed reasonably necessary or incidental to the achievement of similar objects.

4. PUBLIC COMPANY

The Company is registered as a public company limited by guarantee and accordingly:

- a) the number of Members must not be less than one (1); and
- b) the minimum number of directors that the Company must have at any time is three (3).

POWERS

The Company may by Ordinary Resolution or Special Resolution as the Law requires, exercise any power which by Law a company limited by guarantee may exercise if authorised by its Constitution.

CONTRIBUTION WINDING UP

- a) In the event of winding up of the Company, every Member undertakes to contribute to the property of the Company the amount which is agreed to be paid by each Member to be applied:
 - to payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before ceasing to be a Member; and
 - ii) to the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
 - iii) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributors among themselves.
- b) The liability of each Member under Rule 6(a), will terminate on the day which is one (1) year after the date on which the Member's Membership ceases.
- Until otherwise determined, the amount to be contributed by each Member under this Rule 6 will be $10.

7. PROMOTION OF OBJECTS

7.1 Benefit the Company

- a) The income and property of the Company must be applied solely for the benefit and promotion of the Company's objects and no part of the income or property will be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividends, bonus or otherwise to the Members; or.
- b) paid to directors as fees or other remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth.

7.2 Exception

Nothing in this Rule 7 precludes;

- a) payment in good faith of reasonable and proper remuneration to any director, officer or servant of the Company or to any Member in return for any services rendered to the Company;
- the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding the rate charged by the Company's bankers on overdrawn accounts on any money lent to the Company by any Member, director or officer;
- in the case of any director who is engaged by the Company as an executive or managing director, consultant or servant, any reasonable and proper remuneration for services provided in that capacity to the Company;
- d) the repayment of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, properly incurred by any director;
- e) payment of a reasonable rental for premises demised or let by any Member to the Company; or
- f) payment for the engagement of a director as contemplated by rules 20.7 or 20.8.

7.3 Directors prior approval

Any payment authorised under Rule 7.2 may be made only with the prior written approval of the directors.

GIFT FUND

8.1 Maintain Gift Fund

If the Company is required by law to establish and maintain a public fund, the Company must maintain a gift fund (the Gift Fund) for the purposes of receiving gifts from the public to the Company and to be used for the promotion of the Company's objects. The Gift Fund will be named or styled in a way determined by the directors.

8.2 Use of Gift Fund

The Company must ensure that:

- a) the Gift Fund does not contain any property other than as described in Rule 8.1;
- all gifts of money or property received by the Company into the Gift Fund will be used only for the promotion of the Company's objects;
- c) no part of the income and property of the Gift Fund is paid, transferred or distributed, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus, fee or otherwise to any of the Members or Directors other than for the repayment of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, properly incurred on behalf of the Gift Fund or proper administrative services performed in relation to the Gift Fund;
- receipts for donations of property to the Gift Fund are issued in the name of the Gift Fund and showing the name and Australian Business Number of the Company.

8.3 Records and financial statements

a) all gifts of money or property received by the Company must be accounted for separately.

b) The Company must keep and maintain proper books of accounts and records in accordance with generally accepting accounting standards relating to all receipts and outgoings of the Gift Fund.

8.4 Winding Up

If the Gift Fund is wound up or if the endorsement, if any, of the Company as a deductible gift recipient is revoked, any surplus assets of the Gift Fund remaining after the payment of liabilities attributable to it must be transferred to a fund, authority or institution to which income tax deductible gifts can be made.

9. WINDING UP OR DISSOLUTION

9.1 General

If after the Company's winding up or dissolution and the discharge of all its debts and liabilities, any property remains, that property must not be paid to or distributed among the Members. Any remaining property must be given or transferred to some other organisation.

- a) having objects similar to the Company's objects;
- which prohibits the distribution of its or their income and property amongst its or their Members;
- c) which is a company, fund, authority or institution approved by the Commissioner of Taxation as a benevolent institution for the purposes of income tax, sales tax, fringe benefits tax or otherwise under the provisions of any applicable income tax legislation including the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

9.2 Deductible Gift Recipient

If the Company is endorsed as a deductible gift recipient (DGR) and has established a Gift Fund for the receipt of gifts and:

- a) the DGR endorsement is revoked; or
- b) the Gift Fund is wound up,

any surplus assets of the Gift Fund remaining after the payment of liabilities attributable to it must be transferred to a fund, authority or institution to which income tax deductible gifts can be made and the provisions of Rule 9.1 will apply.

MEMBERSHIP

10.1 Members

The Members will be made up of:

- a) the subscribers to the Rules; and
- any other persons that the directors admit to Membership in accordance with the Rules.

10.2 Application for Membership

- a) Any person which is a body corporate and not a natural person will be eligible for Membership .
- In order to be admitted as a Member, every applicant for Membership (other than the subscribers) must:
 - execute and deliver to the Company an application for Membership in the form which the directors determine; and
 - ii) pay to the Company the Membership entrance fee (if any) determined by the directors.
- c) Subject to Rule 5, the directors may create classes of Members and determine the rights and privileges attaching to those classes including, but not limited to, the voting rights of the Members in each class.

10.3 Further information

An applicant for Membership must provide in writing, any other information in addition to that contained in the application, as the directors require.

10.4 Determination of Directors

- The directors will determine the outcome of each Membership application within a reasonable time after receipt.
- The directors may approve or reject any applicant for Membership in the directors' absolute discretion.
- c) The directors are not required to give or assign any reason or explanation for the approval or rejection of any application for Membership.

10.5 Entrance Fee

The directors may determine the entrance fee payable by any person applying for Membership. The directors may at any time and as many times as they decide, change the entrance fee payable. Until the directors otherwise determine, no entrance fee is payable.

10.6 Notification of determination

- a) When an application for Membership has been accepted, the Secretary will send to the applicant written notice of the acceptance and will enter the applicant's name in the Register.
- b) When an application for Membership is rejected, the Secretary will send to the applicant written notice of the rejection and the entrance fee paid, if any, by that applicant will be refunded in full.

10.7 Certificates

A certificate of Membership may be issued by the Company to any Member. Any certificate issued will remain the property of the Company and must be returned to the Company on written demand by the Secretary.

10.8 Membership not transferable

Membership is not transferable by operation of law or otherwise. All rights and privileges of Membership will cease immediately upon a person ceasing to be a Member for any reason.

11. FEES AND LEVIES

11.1 Fees

Members must pay annual Membership fees and other fees in the amounts and at the times determined by the directors from time to time.

11.2 Levies

In order to provide additional funds required for the operation of the Company, the directors may determine that levies are to be paid by Members and may fix the amount and the dates for payment of them. Until determined by the directors, no levies will be payable by Members.

11.3 Different fees or levies payable

In determining fess or levies under this Rule, the directors may differentiate between classes of Members as to the amounts and timing of fees or levies payable.

12. VARYING MEMBERS' RIGHTS

12.1 Special Resolution

a) If the Membership is divided into different classes of Members, the rights attached to any class of Membership may be varied with the written consent of 75% of the Members in that class or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a meeting of the Members of that class. b) The right to vary Membership rights in Rule 12.1(a) may be exercise unless otherwise provided by the terms of acceptance of the Members of that class and whether or not the Company is being wound up.

13. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

13.1 Non-payment of fees or levies

- a) If any fees or levies payable by a Member remain unpaid for a period, determined by the directors, after the due date for payment, the directors may by resolution suspend the Member's rights and privileges (including the right to vote) or terminate the Member's Membership. The directors may reinstate the Member on payment of all arrears if the Directors think fit to do so.
- b) Until otherwise determined by the directors, the period during which the Member's fees or levies must remain unpaid under Rule 13.1(a) will be two (2) calendar months.

13.2 Cessation of Membership

A Member's Membership will cease immediately:

- a) If the Member resigns or surrenders that Membership by written notice to the Secretary;
- b) if the Member's Membership is terminated under these Rules;
- c) if the Member:
 - has a receiver or receiver and manager appointed, or enters into official management, administration or liquidation; or
 - being a corporation, has a petition for its winding up presented to a Court having appropriate jurisdiction, or passes a resolution of its members for its winding up, or enters into a scheme or arrangement (not being merely for the purpose of amalgamation or reconstruction).

13.3 Continuing rights, liabilities etc.

The termination of a Member's Membership will not prejudice, lessen or affect the rights, duties, liabilities and obligations of the Member whether they:

- a) arise under these Rules or otherwise; or
- b) exist at the date of the termination or arise or crystallise after that date, and in particular, (but without limitation) that termination will not relieve a Member from any obligation to record or account for or pay any levies or fees referred to in these Rules.

13.4 Non-compliance with Constitution, misconduct

- a) If any Member wilfully refuses or neglects to comply with this Constitution or is, does or fails to do any act or thing which, in the opinion of the directors, is unacceptable or prejudicial to the interests of the Company, the directors may by resolution suspend or expel the Member from the Company.
- b) Prior to exercising the right in Rule 13.4(a), the directors must give the Member at least one (1) week's notice of the meeting of the directors at which that resolution is to be put and of what is alleged against him and of the intended resolution. The Member must be given the opportunity of giving orally or in writing the Member's explanation or defence before the passing of such resolution.

GENERAL MEETING

14.1 Director may convene

Any director may convene a general meeting of Members whenever that director decides. A director may cancel any meeting convened by that director.

14.2 Director's convening a general meeting at the request of Members

The directors must call and arrange to hold a general meeting on the request of any Member or Members holding at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting.

14.3 Form of the Members' request

The request from the Members must:

- a) state any resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
- b) be signed by the Members making the request; and
- c) be given to the Company.

14.4 Directors refusal to convene

The directors may refuse to convene the general meeting if the voting on the proposed resolution is not within the power of the Members.

14.5 Members may convene

Two or more Members holding, between them, at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting, may call and arrange to hold a general meeting. The Members calling the meeting must pay the expenses of calling and holding the meeting.

14.6 Notice of general meeting

- A general meeting may only be convened by giving the Members notice of the meeting.
- A notice of general meeting does not need to be given to Members who are not entitled to notice of meetings.
- c) A notice of general meeting must:
 - be given at least twenty-one (21) days before the date of the meeting unless otherwise agreed by all the Members entitled to notice; and
 - ii) specify the place, the day and the time of the meeting; and
 - iii) describe the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and
 - iv) contain any other information required by Law.
- d) The directors may postpone a general meeting or change the venue for the meeting by giving written notice to all Members who received the original notice of meeting at least forty-eight (48) hours before the appointed time. That notice must specify the time and place for the postponed meeting.
- e) If a Member does not receive a meeting notice or the directors accidentally omit to give the Member a meeting notice, that omission will not invalidate the proceedings or any resolution passed at the meeting.
- f) No business is to be transacted at any general meeting except that contained in the meeting notice unless all the Members agree otherwise.

14.7 Quorum

- a) Business must not be transacted at a general meeting if a quorum of Members is not present when the meeting proceeds to business.
- b) A quorum will be:
 - i) if the Company has 3 or fewer Members entitled to receive notice of and vote at the meeting, all Members; or
 - ii) in every other case, 3 Members who are entitled to receive notice of and vote at the meeting.

c) A quorum of Members must be present throughout each general meeting. If a quorum is not present at any time the meeting is not validly convened but without affecting the validity of any business conducted before the absence of a quorum occurs.

14.8 Determine a quorum

In determining whether a quorum is present, a person attending as a proxy, or representing a body corporate that is a Member, is deemed to be a Member.

14.9 Procedure where no quorum

- a) If a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the general meeting:
 - i) where the meeting was convened upon the requisition of Members, the meeting will be dissolved; or
 - ii) in any other case, the meeting will be adjourned.
- b) Any adjourned meeting will be rescheduled to take place on a day and time and at the place that the directors decide.
- c) If no directors are present at the general meeting or if no decision is made by the directors, the meeting will take place on the same day and at the same time and place as originally notified, but in the next succeeding week.
- d) If at the rescheduled meeting a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the appointed time, then the meeting will be dissolved unless it is further adjourned under Rule 14.12.

14.10 Election of chairman

- a) The directors will elect one director to preside as chairman at every general meeting. If the directors have elected a chairman of directors, that person will be deemed to be elected as the chairman at each general meeting.
- b) Where a general meeting is held and:
 - a chairman of directors has not been elected;
 - ii) the chairman of directors is not present within 15 minutes after the appointed time; or
 - iii) the chairman of directors is unwilling to act,

the Members present will elect the Nominated Representative of a Member to be chairman of the meeting.

14.11 No casting vote

The chairman does not have a casting vote in addition to any deliberative vote the chairman has as a Nominated Representative of a Member.

14.12 Adjournment of meeting

- Subject to Rule 14.12(b), the chairman may adjourn any meeting of Members.
- An adjournment of a meeting of Members must only be made:
 - i) with the consent of the meeting provided a quorum is present; or
 - ii) in the case of an adjournment under Rule 14.9(d), with the consent of Members present and entitled to vote; or
 - iii) if directed by the meeting to do so.
- c) Any adjournment may change the time or the venue for the meeting.
- Only business left unfinished from the meeting adjourned may be transacted at any rescheduled meeting.

e) If at the further rescheduled meeting a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the appointed time, then notwithstanding Rule 14.7(b), the Members then present and entitled to vote at the meeting shall form a quorum.

14.13 Adjournment of thirty (30) days

If a meeting is to be adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as if it was an original meeting.

14.14 Adjournment of less than thirty (30) days

A notice of meeting is not required to be given for an adjourned meeting where the adjournment is for less than thirty (30) days.

14.15 Show of hands or poll

Any vote taken at a general meeting is decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded:

- a) by the chairman; or
- b) by at least two (2) Members present in person or by proxy; or
- a Member or Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll, present in person or by proxy.

14.16 Declaration on show of hands

If a poll is not demanded, the chairman's declaration that a resolution has been carried or lost with an entry to that effect in the minute book is conclusive evidence of that fact. It is not necessary to record the number or proportion of votes recorded for or against the resolution.

14.17 Withdraw poll

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time.

14.18 Demand for poll

A poll will be taken immediately if one is demanded or at any other time after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the Chairman decides. The result of the poll will be recorded as the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

14.19 Poll for chairman

Any poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

14.20 Voting

Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any class of Membership:

- a) at meetings of Members or classes of Members, each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or attorney or by representative (if a body corporate); and
- b) on show of hands every person present who is a Member or a representative of a Member has one (1) vote, and on a poll every Member present in person or by proxy or attorney has one (1) vote.

14.21 Members not to vote unless fully paid

A Member is only entitled to vote at a general meeting if all fees and levies and other amounts at that time due and payable by the Member have been paid.

14.22 Objection to qualification of Member

Any objection to the qualification of a person to vote must be made at the same meeting at which that person's vote is tendered. Any objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision is final and:

- a) any vote approved will be valid for all purposes; or
- any vote disallowed will be invalid and must be disregarded.

14.23 Only Members entitled to vote may vote

Only those Members who belong to a class of Members who are entitled to vote at a general meeting whether in person or by proxy will be entitled to vote.

14.24 Rights of third parties to attend general meetings

Even if they are not Members, the following persons have the right to attend any general meeting and, if requested by the directors, to speak at the general meeting:

- a) any director; and
- b) any Secretary; and
- any other person invited by the directors.

14.25 Minutes

The directors must ensure that proper minutes are made of:

- a) all general meetings of the Company;
- all appointments of officers;
- the proceedings of all general meetings;
- d) the attendance at and business transacted at general meetings, and the minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, will be conclusive evidence of the matters recorded in them without any further proof.

RULES FOR VOTING BY PROXY

15.1 Proxies

- a) A Member who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a general meeting may appoint a person as the Member's proxy to attend and vote for the Member at the meeting and in that case:
- b) the appointment may specify the proportional number of votes that the proxy may exercise;
- c) if the Member is entitled to cast two (2) or more votes at the meeting, they may appoint two (2) proxies. If the Member appoints two (2) proxies and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the Member's votes each proxy may exercise, each proxy may exercise half of the votes;
- an appointment of a proxy may be revoked at any time before the vote to which the proxy relates is exercised by written notice delivered to the Secretary;
- e) any fractions of votes resulting from the application of Rules 15.1(b) or 15.1(c) must be disregarded.

15.2 Attorneys

Any Member may, by power of attorney, appoint an attorney to act on the Member's behalf at all or any meetings of the Company. The power of attorney or a copy of it, verified in a manner satisfactory to the directors, must be produced for inspection at the registered office or any other place specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting with evidence of proper execution as the directors require, not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the meeting.

15.3 Representative of corporations

Any Member which is a corporation must appoint a Nominated Representative in accordance with section 250D of the Law to attend and vote for that Member at general meetings of the Company. The appointment may be a standing appointment.

15.4 Representative need not be a Member

A proxy, attorney or Nominated Representative need not also be a Member and their appointment may be revoked at any time.

15.5 Proxy in writing

An instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing and signed by:

- a) the appointer; or
- b) the appointer's attorney; or
- the persons authorised under the Law or by an authorised officer or attorney of the appointer, where the appointer is a body corporate.

15.6 How the proxy is to vote

If the document appointing a proxy specifies how the proxy is to vote in relation to a resolution, the proxy must vote as specified in the document. Any vote tendered otherwise is invalid and must be disregarded.

15.7 Authority for a poll

A document appointing a proxy confers the authority to demand a poll.

15.8 Form of proxy

The appointment of a proxy must be substantially in the form in Schedule 1.

15.9 Delivery of proxy before meeting

- a) The appointment of a proxy is not valid unless the appointment document and a certified copy of any power of attorney or other authority under which that document is signed is delivered to the Company.
- b) The relevant documents must be delivered, not less than 48 hours before the appointed meeting time.
- c) The relevant documents must be delivered to the Company's registered office or to any other place in Australia specified in the notice convening the meeting.

15.10 Validity of proxy vote

A vote tendered in accordance with a proxy or power of attorney is valid even if:

- a) the appointer or principal dies or becomes mentally incapacitated;
- b) the proxy or power of attorney is revoked in any way, but only if the Company had no written notice of any defect before any authority is exercised.

15.11 Instrument not valid

An instrument appointing a proxy will not be valid after the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date of its execution.

16. APPOINTMENT, REMOVAL AND REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

16.1 Number of directors

- a) The number of directors must not be fewer than three (3) nor more than six (6).
- b) Subject to rule 16.1 (c), the Company may by Special Resolution passed at a general meeting increase or reduce the number of directors but must not reduce the minimum number of directors below three (3).
- c) Where the Company has three (3) Members only, then unless the Company determines otherwise by Special Resolution at a general meeting:
 - the number of directors must be either three (3) or six (6);
 - (ii) where the number of directors is three (3), each Member is entitled to nominate one (1) of the directors;
 - (iii) where the number of directors is six (6), each Member is entitled to nominate two (2) of the directors.

16.2 Appointment of directors

The directors have the power to appoint any person as a director to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the board provided that the number of directors does not exceed any maximum number of directors fixed by this Constitution or by the Company. Where rule 16.1(c) applies, the directors will appoint the person nominated by the Member whose previously nominated director has created the vacancy to be filled.

16.3 Rotation of directors

At the first annual general meeting of the Company, all the directors must retire from office. At every subsequent annual general meeting, one third of the directors, or if the number of directors is not a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to one third, must retire from office. A retiring director is eligible for re-election. The directors to retire at an annual general meeting are those who have been longest in office since their election. As between persons who became directors on the same date, the directors to retire will be determined by lot.

16.4 Re-election of retiring directors

The Company, may by Ordinary Resolution, fill a vacated director's office by electing a person to that office. If the vacated office is not filled, the retiring director must, if offering himself for re-election, be deemed to have been re-elected unless at that meeting:

- a) it is resolved not to fill the vacated office; or
- a resolution for the re-election of the director is put and lost.

16.5 Removal of director

- The Company may remove any director and, subject to rule 16.1(c), appoint another director as a replacement.
- Subject to rule 16.2, the removal or replacement of a director must be effected by Ordinary Resolution of the Company.

16.6 Director's expenses

The directors will be entitled to be reimbursed all travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them:

- a) in attending meetings of the directors or any committee of the directors;
- in attending general meeting of the Company; or
- c) in connection with the Company's business.

16.7 Vacation of director's office

The office of a director becomes vacant if:

- a) required by the Law;
- b) the director is removed under these Rules;
- the director dies or becomes mentally incapacitated or the director's estate is liable to be dealt with under a law relating to mental health;
- d) the director becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with creditors;
- e) the director resigns as a director;
- the director is absent from directors' meetings for at least three (3) months without the consent of the other directors; or
- g) the director holds any other office of profit under the Company, except that of executive director or managing director, without the consent of the Company in general meeting.

17. POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

17.1 Directors manage the business

- Subject to the Law and to these Rules, the Company's business will be managed by the directors.
- The directors are entitled to pay or reimburse all expenses incurred in promoting and forming the Company.
- c) The directors may exercise all powers of the Company except where those powers must be exercised by the Company in general meeting under the Law or these Rules.

17.2 All powers of Company

Without limiting Rule 17.1, the directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to:

- a) borrow money;
- b) charge any property or business of the Company or all or any of its uncalled capital;
- c) issue debentures; or
- d) give any other security for a debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any other person.

17.3 Corporate groups

- a) If the Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of another Company (the Holding Company), the directors may act in the best interests of the Holding Company.
- b) The directors must not act in the way referred to in Rule 17.3(a) if the Company is insolvent at the time or would by virtue of the directors' actions become insolvent.

17.4 Appointment of attorney

- a) The directors may appoint any person or persons by a grant of power of attorney to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company.
- b) The appointment may be;
 - i) for any purpose; or
 - ii) in relation to any other directors' powers, authorities and discretions; or
 - iii) for any period; and/or
 - iv) subject to any conditions as the directors decide.

17.5 Provisions of power of attorney

Any power of attorney may contain provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with the attorney as the directors decide and may authorise the attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.

17.6 Cheques and promissory notes

All cheques, promissory notes, bankers drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for money paid to the Company, must be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed:

- a) by any two (2) directors; or
- in any other manner as the directors decide.

18. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

18.1 Use of technology

Any directors' meeting may be conducted at more than one (1) venue by using any technology that gives each director a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and permits each director present to hear and be heard by each other director present.

18.2 Directors' meetings

- a) The directors must meet at least quarterly.
- Any director may convene a directors' meeting. The Secretary must convene a meeting at the request of a director.
- A written notice of a directors' meeting must be sent to each director within seven (7) days after a request to convene a meeting.
- d) The notice may be given by telephone or other electronic means of communication. The notice must specify:
 - the date and time for the proposed meeting;
 - ii) the venue for the meeting unless the meeting is conducted under Rule 18.1;
 - iii) if the meeting is to be conducted under Rule 18.1, the method for conducting the meeting; and
 - iv) the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

18.3 Quorum

- a) A quorum at a directors' meeting will be:
 - i) if the Company has 3 or fewer Members at the relevant time, 1 director nominated by each of the Members; or
 - in every other case, at least 3 directors entitled to vote on any motion that may be moved by the meeting.
- b) A quorum of directors must be present throughout each directors' meeting. If a quorum is not present at any time the meeting is not validly convened but without affecting the validity of any business conducted before the absence of a quorum occurs.

18.4 Directors to continue to act

Where a vacancy in the office of a director occurs, the remaining directors may continue to act. If the number of remaining directors is insufficient to constitute a quorum, the directors may act only for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to that required constitute a quorum or to convene a general meeting.

18.5 Election of chairman

The directors may elect one (1) director as chairman of their meetings and may determine the period for which the chairman is to hold office.

18.6 Chairman not present

Where a directors' meeting is held and the chairman:

- a) has not been elected; or
- b) is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the appointed time; or
- c) is unwilling to act,

then the directors present will elect one (1) of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

18.7 No casting votes

The chairman does not have a casting vote in addition to any deliberative vote the chairman has as a director.

18.8 Circular resolution

The directors may pass a resolution without a directors' meeting if all of the directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document stating that they are in favour of the resolution. Duplicate copies of the document may be used for signing. The resolution is deemed to be passed when the last director signs.

18.9 Validity of directors acts

All things done by any directors' meeting or by a committee of directors or by any person acting as a director will be valid even though it subsequently becomes known:

- a) that there was some defect in the appointment of a person to be a director or a Member of the committee, or to act as a director; or
- that a person appointed was disqualified.

18.10 Decisions of the directors

- a) Subject to Rule 18.10(b), any question arising at a directors' meeting or any committee of directors is determined by a simple majority of votes of the directors present and entitled to vote on that question.
- b) Any approval required or any requirement for the passing of a resolution directly relating to any of the following matters must be passed or approved (as the case may be) by at least three (3) Directors entitled to vote each of whom is appointed by a different Member:
 - the application by the Company for the provision to the Company of financial accommodation of any nature;
 - the entering into a scheme of arrangement or other compromise with the creditors of the Company;
 - iii) the giving of a guarantee or other form of security by the Company;
 - iv) the acquisition of any real property for a price in excess of $30,000 and any other assets (including but not only shares) for a price in excess of $50,000;
 - v) the lease or license of any premises;
 - vi) the employment of any person or the increase in salary of an existing employee by more than 5% per annum;
 - vii) the engagement of any person under a contract for service that is likely to exceed the sum of $25,000 per annum;

- viii) the employment of any person or the engagement of any person under a contract where that person is a direct family member of any director;
- ix) the writing off of any sum in excess of $30,000;
- x) the commencement or settlement of any legal or arbitration proceedings involving third parties;
- xi) the entering into of any material contract, arrangement or commitment for more than $50,000; or
- xii) the approval of any annual program, and any material change to any annual program where the value of any such change exceeds $5,000 per item and $50,000 in aggregate.

18.11 Minutes

The directors will cause proper minutes to be made of:

- a) all directors' meetings;
- b) all appointments of officers;
- the proceedings of all directors' meetings and committees of directors;
- d) the attendance at all meetings of the directors and the business transacted at those meetings, and any minutes purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting will be conclusive evidence of the matters recorded in them without any further proof.

19. ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

19.1 No appointment of alternate directors

No Member may appoint a person to act as an alternate to that Member's appointed Directors or either of them .

20. INTERESTED DIRECTORS

20.1 Notice requirements

- a) If a director has a material personal interest in any matter that relates to the affairs of the Company, the director must disclose that interest to the other directors unless the director is not required to disclose the interest in the circumstances listed in Section 191(2) of the Law.
- b) The notice disclosing the director's material personal interest must:
 - xiii) give details of the nature and extent of the interest and how it relates to the affairs of the Company;
 - xiv) be given at a directors' meeting as soon as practicable after the director becomes aware of the interest; and
 - xv) be recorded in the minutes of the directors' meeting at which the notice is given.

20.2 Director must not vote

A director who has a material personal interest in any matter being considered at a director's meeting must not be present while the matter is being considered and must not vote on the matter.

20.3 Exception to Rule

Regardless of Rule 20.2, if:

a) the director is not required to disclose the interest under Section 191 of the Law;

- b) the director has disclosed the interest under Section 191 of the Law and the other directors not having a material personal interest in the matter pass a resolution that:
 - i) identifies the director, the nature and extent of the director's interest in the matter and its relation to the affairs of the Company; and
 - states that those directors are satisfied that the interest should not disqualify the director from voting on the matter or being present; or
- c) ASIC has determined under Section 196 of the Law that the director may be present and vote, then the director may be present at the meeting considering the matter and may vote in relation to it.

20.4 No quorum available

If a quorum of directors is not present at any meeting because of the operation of Rule 20.2, any director may call a general meeting and the general meeting may pass a resolution to deal with the matter.

20.5 Director not disqualified

If a director is permitted to be present and to vote by virtue of Rule 20.3:

- a) that director will not be disqualified by the office from contracting with the Company either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise;
- no contract made by that director with the Company and no contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which that director is in any way interested may be avoided by reason only of that director holding that office or of the fiduciary relationship established by it;
- c) that director may:
 - i) execute any deed or document on behalf of the Company; and
 - ii) count in a quorum.

20.6 Standing notice

- a) A director may give the other directors standing notice that:
 - the director is a director or Member of any specified company or firm and is to be regarded as interested in all subsequent transactions with that company or firm; or
 - ii) the director has any other interest in any matter, at any time and whether or not the matter relates to the Company's affairs at the time.

- b) The notice under Rule 20.6(a) must comply with Section 192 of the Law and will only be effective if it has not expired at any relevant time.
- c) If a notice is given in accordance with Rule 20.6(a) and the notice is effective at the relevant time, the notice will be sufficient disclosure under these Rules in relation to any contract, proposed contract or arrangement to be made by the Company.

20.7 Other office may be held

A director may hold any other office or place of profit, except that of auditor, in the Company in conjunction with the directorship and may be appointed upon terms of remuneration, tenure of office and otherwise as the directors decide.

20.8 Professional director may act

Any director may act in a professional capacity for the Company, and will be entitled to remuneration for professional services regardless of the directorship.

COMMON SEAL

21.1 Election to adopt company seal

The directors may resolve that the Company adopt a common seal. If the Company adopts a common seal, it will include:

- a) only the Company's name where the Company has its ACN as its name; or
- the Company's name, the expression "ACN" and its Australian Company Number in all other cases.

21.2 Duplicate common seal

The directors may adopt a duplicate common seal. Any duplicate common seal must be a copy of the common seal with the words "Duplicate Seal" or "Certificate Seal" added to it.

21.3 Prohibited use

A director must not use, or authorise the use of, a seal which purports to be the common seal of the Company (or a duplicate of the common seal) if the common seal does not comply with the requirements of this Rule.

22. EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

22.1 Execution with or without the common seal

The Company may execute a document with or without affixing a common seal. The Company executes a document if the document is signed by:

- a) two (2) directors; or
- one (1) director where that director is authorised to do so by a resolution of a directors' meeting; or
- c) a director and the Secretary.

22.2 Execution of deeds

The Company may execute a document as a deed if the document is expressed to be executed as a deed and is executed in accordance with this Rule 22.

22.3 No limitation

This Rule will not be interpreted as limiting the manner in which the Company may execute a document (including a deed).

23. COMMITTEE

23.1 Delegation to committee

The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee or committees of directors as they decide.

23.2 Powers of committee

A committee to which any powers have been delegated must exercise the powers delegated in accordance with any directions of the directors. A power exercised in accordance with those directions is deemed to have been exercised by the directors.

23.3 Committee chairman

The members of a committee may elect one (1) of their number as chairman of their meetings.

23.4 Election of chairman

Where a committee meeting is held and:

- a) a chairman has not been elected; or
- the chairman is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the appointed time; or
- c) the chairman is unwilling to act;

the committee members present may elect one (1) of their number to ne chairman of the meeting.

23.5 Decision by majority

Questions arising at a committee meeting will be determined by a majority of votes of the committee members who are present and voting.

23.6 Casting vote

The chairman has a casting vote, if necessary, in addition to any vote the chairman has as a committee Member.

24. MANAGING DIRECTOR

24.1 Appointment

The directors may from time to time appoint one (1) or more directors to be the managing director of the Company. The managing director's appointment will be for a period and on terms as the directors decide. The directors may revoke the managing director's appointment.

24.2 Termination

A managing director's appointment automatically terminates if he ceases for any reason to be a director.

24.3 Remuneration

A managing director will be entitled to receive any remuneration determined by the directors.

24.4 Powers of managing director

- a) The directors may confer upon a managing director any of the powers exercisable by them with any conditions or restrictions as the directors decide.
- b) Any of those powers may be made concurrent with or exclusive of the powers of the directors.
- The directors may at any time withdraw or vary any of those powers.

SECRETARY

25.1 Appointment

The Secretary will be appointed by the directors on terms and conditions (including as to remuneration) determined by the directors. The Secretary may, but need not, be a director or a Nominated Representative of a Member. The directors may at any time remove or replace the Secretary.

25.2 Secretary to attend and be heard

The Secretary has the right to attend and to be heard, but not to vote (unless in another capacity permitted under this Constitution), at all meetings of the Company and of the directors.

26. ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

26.1 Proper records kept

The directors must ensure that proper accounting and other records are kept. A balance sheet and profit and loss account must be prepared and distributed to all Members at least once in each calendar year.

26.2 Auditor

Where required by the Law, the Company must appoint an auditor or auditors, whose duties will be regulated in accordance with the Law.

27. RESERVES

27.1 Make reserve

The Directors may:

- a) write off from the Company's earnings any amount for loss or depreciation of any property;
- b) set aside any amount out of the Company's profits, as a reserve fund to meet contingencies or for repairing, improving and/or maintaining any of the Company's property and/or for any other purposes which are conducive to the interests of the Company.

27.2 Deal with reserve

The Directors may:

- a) invest, lend or dispose of any reserved amounts in any way;
- b) deal with, vary and dispose of any investments or parts of them for the benefit of the Company;
- c) divide the reserve fund into special funds; and/or
- employ the assets constituting the reserve fund in the business of the Company and without being bound to keep the same separate from other assets.

28. INSPECTION OF RECORDS

28.1 Conditions

The directors may determine whether an under what conditions the accounting records or other documents of the Company will be open to the inspection of Members.

28.2 No right unless authorised

A Member does not have the right to inspect any document of the Company except as provided by the Law or authorised by the directors or by the company in general meeting.

28.3 Directors right

The directors have the right at any time to inspect the accounting records or other documents of the Company, whether or not they are a Member.

29. NOTICES

29.1 Form of notice

Any notice or other communication in connection with this Constitution must be in writing and signed by the person giving the notice and be addressed to the Notice Address of the person to whom it is to be given.

29.2 Time of delivery

The notice or other communication will be deemed to be received:

- a) in the case of a posted letter, on the third day after posting;
- in the case of delivery by generally recognised overnight courier, on the second day after dispatch with that courier.
- in the case of personal delivery, on the date of delivery;

- in the case of facsimile transmission, at the time recorded on the transmission report from the machine from which the facsimile was sent; or
- e) in the case of transmission by electronic mail, on the day of transmission if the electronic medium sending the notice states that the transmission was completed before 5:00pm on a business day, otherwise on the next business day. This method of service is effective only if the medium's report states that is was sent in full and without error and the message is not rejected or undeliverable as evidenced by a message to that effect received by the sender.

30. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

30.1 Indemnity against liability

To the extent permitted by the Law, the Company may indemnify every person who is, or who has been, a director or officer of the Company or any Related Body Corporate against:

- a) any liability incurred by them in their capacity as director or officer, to a person other than the Company or Related Body Corporate, except where the liability relates to a wilful breach of duty or a contravention of section 181-184 of the Law.
- any liability for legal costs or expenses incurred by them in defending any proceedings in which judgement is given in their favour; or
- any liability for legal costs or expenses incurred by them in defending any proceedings in which they are acquitted or the Court grants relief in their favour.

30.2 Insurance

To the extent permitted by the Law, the Company may insure or pay any premiums on a policy of insurance for a director or officer of the Company or of a Related Body Corporate against any liability for which the Company indemnifies the director or officer under Rule 30.1.

30.3 Resolution to Grant Indemnity

A director may vote in favour of a resolution that the Company grant an indemnity pursuant to Rule 30.1, take insurance or pay the premiums on an insurance policy pursuant to Rule 30.2 even though the director has a direct and material interest in the outcome of the resolution.
